Creditor

("You" means Applicant, et al; and "We" means Creditor)

Important Information to Applicant(s). To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who applies for a loan or opens an account.

What this means for you. When you apply for a loan or open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. In some instances, we may use outside sources to confirm the information. The information you provide is protected by our privacy policy and federal law.

Read each instruction carefully before completing this form.

11. Notices
California Residents. Each applicant, if married, may apply for a separate account.
New York Residents. A consumer report may be ordered in connection with your application. Upon your request, we will inform you whether or not a report was ordered. If a report was ordered, we will tell you the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that provided the report. Subsequent reports may be ordered or utilized in connection with an update, renewal or extension of credit for which you have applied.
Ohio Residents. The Ohio laws against discrimination require all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law. Any person who, with intent to defraud or knowing that he is facilitating a fraud against an insurer, submits an application or files a claim containing a false or deceptive statement is guilty of insurance fraud.
Texas Residents. The owner of the homestead is not required to apply the proceeds of the extension of credit to repay another debt except debt secured by the homestead or debt to another lender.
Wisconsin Residents. Notice to Married Applicants. No provision of any marital property agreement, unilateral statement under Wisc. Statutes § 766.59 or a court decree under Wisc. Statutes § 766.70 adversely affects the interests of the Creditor unless the Creditor, prior to the time the credit is granted, is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement or decree or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision when the obligation to the Creditor is incurred. For Married Wisconsin Residents. The credit being applied for, if granted, will be incurred in the interest of my marriage or family. I understand the Creditor may be required by law to give notice of this transaction to my spouse.
